Story 1: As Max a solo traveler, I want to be able to track my trip as I go on the itinerary (roadmap), so that it is not too stressful while on the trip for being a solo traveler.

Story 2: As Sasha a planning freak, I want an online platform where I can plan out my whole trip like over a dashboard, so that I access the plan from anywhere and at any time.

Story 3: As Karen a group traveler, I want my friends to collaborate on planning a trip by giving them access to the trip plan, so that it is easy to incorporate their needs and preferences.

Story 4: As a busy person, I want recommendations on destinations based on my budget, interests & travel dates so that I don't spend much time planning & researching.

Story 5: As a spontaneous traveler, I want to customize itinerary as per my convenience so that I can make the most of my trip while accommodating my personal preferences & last-minute changes.

Story 6: As a curious traveler, I want suggestions on lesser-known attractions at my travel destination so that I can avoid tourist crowds and discover hidden gems.

Story 7: As a travel photographer, I want a personalized travel itinerary that includes photo-worthy destinations so that I can capture stunning photos and make the most of my trip without having to spend hours researching such locations.

Story 8: As a budget-conscious traveler, I want to be able to manage my trip budget so that I can track my expenses in real-time to make sure I'm staying within my budget.

Story 9: As a traveler, I want to receive real time updates about any climatical changes so that I can adjust my itinerary accordingly and avoid any unnecessary stress

Story 10: As a specially abled traveler, I want information on the accessibility of destinations, accommodations, so that I can plan my trip accordingly and avoid any unnecessary obstacles.

Story 11: As an adventurous traveler, I want to find interesting activities and experiences to add to my itinerary so that I can filter and select the adventures I'm interested in.

Story 12: As a traveler, I want to receive recommendations on restaurants nearby so that I can enjoy local cuisines and find restaurants easily.

Story 13: As a traveler, I want to have an inbuild photo diary so that I can keep track and revisit the places, activities, and sights I have made memories of.

Story 14: As a frequent traveler, I want to be able to access my itinerary offline so that if I am at a location with low bandwidth, I'd still be able to track my trip.

Story 15: As a traveler, I would like similar destination recommendations based on the image/video that I upload, so that I can find similar places as in the media easily.
